

Sales Contract and Health Guarantee

Hav'n'Hold Havanese

Seller has taken all necessary precautions to ensure that your puppy is in good health at the time of sale. Buyer is responsible to have the puppy examined by a licensed veterinarian of their choice within 3 business days of purchase. Should your vet find the puppy to be ill or find a problem of a serious nature and suggests that the puppy should be returned, seller will reimburse purchase price within the 3 business day specified time period. All vet costs are the buyer's responsibility and the buying is further responsible to maintain the puppy's health by keeping inoculations current and following all requirements of the vet for further examinations.

The puppy carries a 3 year hereditary defect guarantee. Within the first 3 years of purchase should the puppy develop a serious genetic defect that would require surgery or medical costs, seller will reimburse said costs up to but not exceeding the purchase price of the puppy. Second opinions will be needed for serious surgeries, and Buyer must make seller aware immediately of any problems needing treatment to validate guarantee. Problems such as hernias, bite abnormalities, allergies, undescended testicles, cherry eye, etc. are of a minor nature and are covered up to a $250 maximum one-time payment.

It is understood by the buyer that this puppy is being sold as a pet for companion purposes. Buyer will receive AKC limited registration for pets as arranged by American Kennel Club. Breeding rights are excluded unless otherwise agreed upon.
